We would like to invite you to participate as a sponsor or vendor at our Ninth Annual Conference of the Asian American Pacific Islander Nurses Association (AAPINA) to be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, March 22-24, 2012.

The conference will bring together Asian American and Pacific Islander Nurses whose goal is to advocate for the health and well being of Asian American and Pacific Islanders. Objectives of AAPINA are to:

1. Identify the health care needs of Asian American Pacific Islanders
2. Implement formulated strategies for acting on issues, legislation and public policies affecting the health of Asian Americans Pacific Islanders
3. Collaborate with Asian American Pacific Islander health and professional organizations and
4. Support the health care and nursing concerns of Asian American and Pacific Islanders nurse in the United States and its territories through active networking.

The Asian American Pacific Islander Nurses Association founded in 1992 is a non-profit professional nursing organization. AAPINA has a growing membership from a variety of ethnic backgrounds, Chinese, Filipinos, Indians, Japanese, Hawaiians, Koreans, Taiwanese, Samoans as well as multicultural identities. The members are employed in academic institutions, major medical centers, and community based health centers serving a diverse range of patients and families.

Your organization can benefit by name recognition, advertisement, and recruitment, from this event by taking part as a commercial exhibit or sponsor (see below for level of sponsorship and cost for exhibitors).

The agreement for sponsors should be signed and returned on or before February 1, 2012. Please notify us by email of your intention to be a sponsor and please designate the level of your desired sponsorship. Please make your payment out to: AAPINA and send via email a camera ready copy of your organization's logo which will appear in our program booklet along with an acknowledgement of sponsorship. Please send this information to either Dr. Patricia Alpert at patricia.alpert@unlv.edu or Dr. Alona Angosta at alona.angosta@unlv.edu. Please send your check to:
